- Paid As GL+ for 3 months during your six month qualification period. Upon the first month of achieving GL+ your six month rolling calendar begins, meaning you have five additional months to qualify.
- PL+ who have already attended the RRR, may re-attend the RRR for $2,000.
- If an enrollment refunds it will not count as a qualifying enrollment, because of this we recommend overbuilding and exceeding minimum qualification criteria.

- Grandfather Clause: If you have at least one qualifying month at the end of 2021 going into 2022, then the qualification criteria of 2021 will hold true. Meaning if qualification criteria changes in 2022, your eligibility to qualify is still based off of 2021 qualification criteria.
- This trip carries no cash value and is not transferrable if qualified attendee is unable to attend.

Frequently Asked Questions

(F.A.Q.'s)

Q: Do the 3 months need to be consecutive?

A: No. So long as you paid as GL+ and have the required qualifying enrollments then as long as you meet the qualification criteria during your rolling 6 month qualifying period, it does not need to be consecutive.

Q: If I don't qualify for all 3 months during my first 6 months after being paid as GL+ can my 6 months start over with the next time I am paid as GL+?

A: Yes.

Example: Mary is paid as GL January, and is not paid as GL again until June. Her rolling six month clock would start over beginning with June. So if she were to be paid as GL and have the qualifying enrollments in July and August in addition to her qualifying in June then she could qualify to attend in March of 2022.

Q: What if I am paid as GL+ but I do not have 3 qualifying (200 PV + VV) enrollments in the same month? Can I still qualify?

A: You can still qualify so long as you have at least 3 paid as GL+ months and 15 cumulative qualifying enrollments during your rolling 6 month period.

Frequently Asked Questions (F.A.Q.'s) - Continued

Example: John is paid as GL in January, February, and April. On each of these 3 paid as GL months he has 2 qualifying enrollments, for a grand total of 6 enrollments. John can still qualify so long as he obtains 9 more enrollments by the end of June.

Q: What if I meet the qualification criteria in both the 1st qualifying period (Jan-Jun 2021) and the 2nd qualifying period (Jul-Dec 2021)? Which trip(s) do I attend?

A: For those who have already attended the Mission trip can re-attend for $2,000.

Q: Do I get to bring a guest?

A: Yes. If you meet the qualification criteria of being paid as GL+ for at least 3 months, and have the needed qualifying enrollments during your 6 month rolling qualification period.
